Minutes

- Fine arts club met with a total of 20 students in attendance
Melody Rubas, Taylor McCroskey, Jena Aistrop, Zach Blevins, Morgan Short, Hannah Long, Melani Miller, Heather Amtower, Ashlyn Spence, Devyn Muncy, Nicholas Agness, Sydni Pennington, Heath Sutphin, Damion Moore, Dylan Vie, Helina Belcele, Meheret Kidane, Glen Richardson, and Geeti Teshiter.
- Formal business was reviewed:
The Black Friar's Playhouse excursion was voted down once the price of $33 was established as too high even at a group rate.
Community service programs including Canned Food Drive and Coat Drive were organized. We are going to begin with the Coat Drive and use "Coat of Many Colors" and "Winter is Coming" as our slogans.
Trip planned to Barter Theater for Oct. 23 at 3pm. All riding on the bus must meet at the Dublin campus at noon.
We reminded members to help sell refreshments for Comic Con 3 here on Oct. 29
We announced that Jena Aistrop's father is having a Meet the Artist day on Sunday from 11-1on Oct. 8th in Eggleston
- Refreshments were served.

Summary:

Trips and activities promoting the fine arts were organized, voted upon, and scheduled.

Community service programs discussed and voted upon to address needs to the local area.

A 2nd meeting has not been planned as members of the club will coordinate individually and in groups to arrange time for community service as work and school schedules do not align. The 2nd meeting will be scheduled shortly for October by the president.
