New River Community College
Associate Degree Nursing Program

Traditional Track (RN) Admission

Thank you for your interest in the NRCC Associate Degree Nursing (RN) program at New River Community College! Please note that admission to the A.D.N. program is competitive entry consisting of TEAS scores, G.P.A.’s, and non-nursing classes. Information session dates and other pertinent information will be available at a later date online at www.nr.edu/nursing. You MUST attend an information meeting and take the TEAS at NRCC before you are eligible for review. If using a previous year TEAS scores, please contact the Nursing Admission Advisor. Incomplete folders will not be reviewed. Any requirement changes will be noted online. You will need to complete the following requirements to be eligible by March 15th of the year you are applying for. (This date is subject to change):

___ application to NRCC ___ *official high school transcript or satisfactory completion of a GED ___ *official college transcript(s) ___ one unit of high school biology (including lab) or equivalent completed prior to March 15th ___ one unit of high school chemistry or equivalent completed prior to March 15th
